HYMNS ANCIENT AND MODERN FOR USE IN THE SERVICES OF THE CHURCH.

In consequence of the rapid sale of this Work (already more than 350,000 copies), and the increasing demand for it at local booksellers', the Compilers have been carefully reviewing their accounts, and, after making several grants to Missions, &c., have determined to reduce the prices, so that single copies of most of the Editions may in future be bought of any bookseller at what has hitherto been trade price. Thus, e. g., a single copy of Edition F, with accompanying tunes, will in future be 3s. 6d. instead of 4s. 6d., and of Edition O, with the treble part, will be 10d. instead of 1s. 2d. The price of Edition A is not reduced, but its value is greatly increased by its being bound in cloth, turned in, instead of cut flush.

SIR JOHN HAWKINS'S GENERAL HISTORY OF THE SCIENCE AND PRACTICE OF MUSIC. Price 35s., bound in Two Volumes. Supplementary Volume of Portraits, 16s., bound in cloth.

IN the present age, when public attention is so extensively directed towards the study and practice of Music, it has been thought that a new edition of SIR JOHN HAWKINS'S valuable HISTORY OF MUSIC would prove peculiarly acceptable, as being by far the best history of the art extant. It was formerly a very scarce and expensive book, but the present price, 35s. bound in two volumes, places it within the reach of both amateur and professional musicians. The large subject of a History of Music, embracing heterogeneous matter, and the result of wide research, makes it a storehouse to which a definite clue is required to give ready access. This will be found in the new and compendious Indexes, which have been carefully compiled, and added to the present edition. The whole matter occupies more than 1000 large pages of close print, with more than 200 wood-cuts, and provides the material for many a long winter evening's amusement by their perusal.

A MASS for Four Voices, with Organ or Pianoforte Accompaniment (in a folio volume, from engraved plates), Composed by GIULIO ROBERTI. Price to Subscribers, 7s. 6d.; Non-Subscribers, 12s.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

It is very satisfactory that, thanks to the Fathers of the Oratory and the conductor of their choir, Herr Schulthes, we have to record the production of a new Mass, which was performed in the Church of the Oratory at Brompton. Signor Roberti is to be congratulated on his having had for his models the classical composers of his own country, and those of Germany, and we shall accordingly notice his Mass, not in the usual superficial style of modern musical criticisms, but as the work of a maestro who has a right to be judged by a more than common standard. The Kyrie may be fairly considered as a chef d'œuvre in its construction, simplicity, and perfect part-writing. The Gloria (allegro) is written with spirit and animation, and has a brilliant accompaniment. It is interspersed with phrases of Pastoral simplicity, which produce a beautiful effect of calm and repose in the midst of the other praise-stirring movements, and they have moreover the advantage of giving new force to the passages of vigorous enthusiasm when they return, until they reach their final climax. We must not omit to make special mention of the "Qui tollis," which, accompanied by a beautiful violoncello phrase, consists of a melody at once novel, pious, and nobly simple, which, by skilful treatment, is taken up successively by the four parts in solo, while the chorus answers "Miserere nobis." This portion of the Gloria is admirably finished off with its different shades and cadences, and with its right colouring of crescendos and diminuendos. The Credo (presto) begins vigorously and nobly. The treatment of the basses in supporting the introductory phrase shows the skilful hand of a master in four-part writing. This part of the movement is large in conception, and at the same time of a dignified flow; the harmonic structure is large and full in perfect chords without being commonplace. The Sanctus and this is saying much in their favour. The Agnus is a gem in its own way, and will, like the whole of the Mass, be more appreciated and liked the oftener it is heard. We congratulate Signor Roberti on this remarkable work, and we feel glad that our Catholic churches in England can rival Germany in giving a home to works of meritorious composers of whatever nation they may be.—Tablet.

The Mass by Signor Roberti, mentioned in the Athenæum a fortnight ago, and since performed at the Oratory, Brompton, is fairly satisfactory—written, at all events, in a sober, if not severe, style; and without a touch of the new Italian Opera effects which, during late years, have made such awful havoc of Roman Church music. Athenæum.

Signor Roberti's new Mass was produced on Sunday 10th, and on Thursday 14th May, and is to be performed again on Sunday 17th, at the Oratory, Brompton. The Mass is as deeply inspired as skilfully written. It is to be produced in other churches shortly, and Père Hermann has signified his intention to have it performed at his church in Kensington Square, when he will himself preside at the organ. This fact alone speaks highly in praise of the new composition.—Musical World.

Sun of my soul, Thou Saviour dear, It is not night if Thou be near ;

Oh ! may no earth-born cloud arise To hide Thee from Thy servant's eyes.

During the last few years the love of Music has spread so rapidly amongst all classes, that the period seems to have arrived for the issue of a cheap publication which shall embrace all the qualities requisite for the full enjoyment of this delightful art. The great success which has attended the cheap reprints of literary works has induced the Publishers to turn their attention to the carrying out of similar results with regard to the popularising of music; and they feel confident, from their long experience in the matter, and the large number of valuable Copyright Works at their disposal, they shall be enabled to do this, not only to the satisfaction of the Musician and the Musical Amateur, but that, by placing a fine collection of Music (hitherto attainable only at a large cost) at a price within the reach of all classes of purchasers, they shall confer a boon on the public which cannot fail to be recognised.
